By Law Amendment: Closed Meetings & Advisors

Author: Vice President S. Duenas

WHEREAS, the Senate closes the meeting for a variety of issues other than personnel, the only instance of which a closed meeting is mentioned in the current iteration of the ASWC By Laws;

WHEREAS, the Senate closes meetings to discuss unprecedented issues as well as confidential and sensitive information;

WHEREAS, the Senate has asked advisors to stay in the room during closed sessions;

LET IT BE FURTHER RESOLVED, Section D Advisors Item 6 be added to the Constitution to read:

" 6. Unless specifically detailed in the motion, it is assumed that advisors will exit the room in the case of a closed session"

LET IT BE FURTHER RESOLVED, Under Article II Meetings of the ASWC By Laws, a subsection K be added to read:

K. To close a meeting, a motion must be presented and receive a 2/3 majority of those voting and present. Unless otherwise specified, the administrative and faculty advisor of the ASWC will exit the room;

THEREFORE, LET IT FINALLY BE RESOLVED, that there a copy of this initiative sent to the following:

Joshua Hartman, ASWC Administrative Advisor

Dr. Paul Kjellberg, Professor of Philosophy and Faculty Advisor to the ASWC Senate
