Seeing Alaska

Feb 25 1948

My dear sister in Christ.
Mrs. Grace H. F. Marshall.

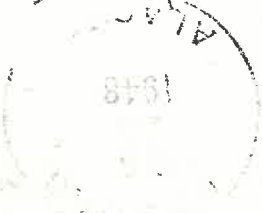

We have received your letter some time ago, and have read it Church, as of old hours many know you or remember, so 11 of us give hands, and so glad to hear from because we know you, and never hear from you so long, and when you try to preach to them they get before 1909. only 2. remembers, one is Mary Morris and Poto Gotal.

I think you have forgotten me, you are the one of interpret at Canole when you preach the Gospel, spring of 1909. March willing or very glad to pay for myself too that I never stop telling about my precious Saviour Jesus Christ since then I am your sister in service.

Mrs. Lily Savak.

P.S. My maiden name Lily Egak.
Daughter of first Eskimo missionary Mrs. Ruth Egak.

for the first time I try interpret of words fifteen them, you remember My father and of went to Sslawik and on the way going home to Unalakleet. we stay about a week while staying I was to stay at your house and help little house work with Ahluagah, even since Ahluagah[†] had been together as real sisters. I think you hear she has gone home too with Jesus Christ now she loved until her last breath, Praise the Lord for another world where we'll never part again, Tho letters hope you enjoy Tho letters and try write again, seems like you & Carrie are over mother in Jesus, we understand its not little thing some where is no people preaching, I am
