... GOOD TIMES

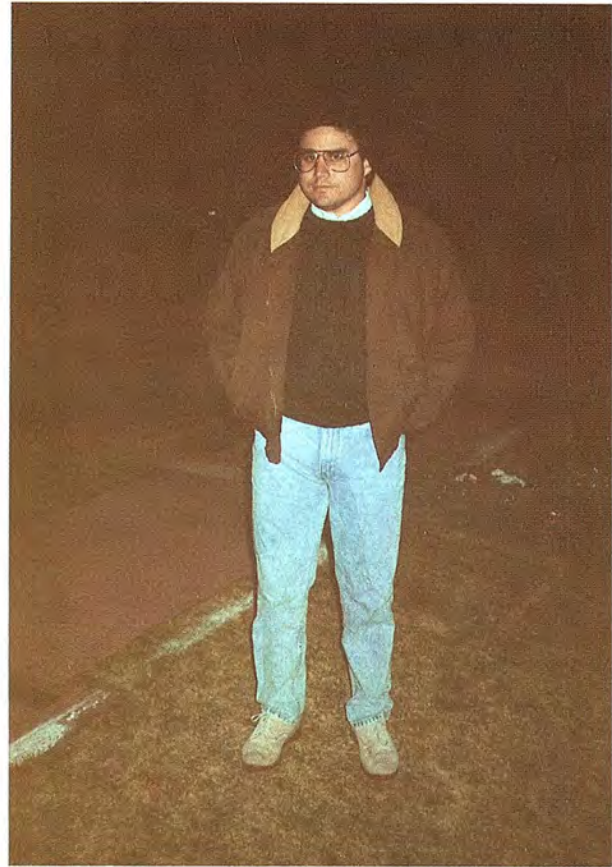

... NEW FACES

This year, we are proud to welcome our new college President, Dr. James L. Ash, Jr., and six new colleagues to the Whittier College community. Included are Presidential Assistant William Mallowney; Kathryn Forte, Vice President for Enrollment and Student Life; Harold Hewitt, Acting Vice President for Finance; Tom Enders, Director of Financial Aid; and Jan Gerber and Jack Mills, both of Financial Aid. Welcome one and all!

Homecoming was held on Saturday, November 4, 1989. Early in the afternoon, The POETS led the victory over their opponent Pomona-Pitzer by 36-12. The king and queen were crowned during halftime along with the presentation of the court.

To set a new tradition, a semi-formal Homecoming dance,

"Bust-A-Move", was held on that evening in Teta Smarts Dance Studio. There was a no host bar and a catered buffet.

Whittier Woodstock, held on Thursday evening during Homecoming week was a real crowd pleaser. The event took place in front of Naylor Hall.

WC's First Theater Production

Baby with the Bathwater

"The true measure of any civilization is the type of parents it creates." Those words were printed at the top of the cast list for Baby with the Bathwater. This theater production was staged at the Whittier Civic Center on October 19 thru 21, 1990.

This first production by the WC Theater Department had some hilarious scenes. The play was basically about a young couple, Helen and John, who attempted to raise a baby. Neither of them knew that the baby, Daisy, was actually a boy, not even Daisy (MacCormick) himself.

In one scene, Daisy refused to move when he and his mother were at the park. He continued to slump, even when mother Helen (Westmoreland) yelled at him to get up.

In another scene, Helen sang Daisy a lullaby that she had made up herself: "Hush little baby, just don't cry, or Mommy'll give you a big, black eye."

Bottom Center: John tries to deal with wife Helen, who threatened to leave him, while the Nanny continues to flirt with him.

John (Smith) tries to appease Helen who has a funny habit of ignoring him.

All is well when wife Susan (Ramirez) joins the Young Man (MacCormick) with the correct words to the lullaby (above).

Top Center: Coming back from checking out a noise, John finds out that he has some uninvited guests, Cynthia (Brady) and the Nanny (Towersey).

The Good Woman of Setzuan

The second Whittier College production in the fall was Bertolt Brecht's The Good Woman of Setzuan. It started out with three gods looking for a "good" person. They arrived in Setzuan and discovered that the only person who will take them in was the local prostitute, Shen Te. They paid her 1,000 silver dollars which she later used to buy a tobacco shop. While she was trying to be a "good" person, she was constantly distracted by the "riff raffs." The only way to stay in control was to disguise herself as a man, namely her cousin, Shui-Ta. She soon discovered that having two identities was tough, especially when she fell in love and became pregnant. Of course, this turned into a big mess, and Shen Te had to reveal herself. In the end, she must still be good.

Mrs. Yang (top) tries to convince Shui-Ta that her son is a good worker.

Shen Te tries on a shawl that the old couple gave her as a gift.

Shen Te screams for help from the silent gods.

As they wait for their entrance cues, the cast decide to have a little fun backstage.

Just having a good ol' time at Luminarias.

"Luminarias" was held on Saturday March 3rd, at the elegant and beautiful Biltmore Hotel, downtown Los Angeles. The dance was scheduled from 6:30 to midnight and tickets were sold prior to the event for $50.00 a couple.

"Monte Carlo" was this year's theme and with this theme came dancing and gambling all night. Many were given $200.00 worth of gambling chips (of course, not real money) to play Black Jack. Dinner was included with the dance. When asked "What did you eat at Luminarias?", many answered, "Tossed dinner salad, purple cabbage, green buttered looking noodles, a glazed chicken patty and for dessert, strawberry cheesecake." Sounds pretty appetizing, wouldn't you say?

All in all, the students had a great time and are looking forward to next year's event.

Twelfth President's

Dr. James L. Ash, Jr. became the 12th president of Whittier College on July 1, 1989. The inauguration ceremony was held at the amphitheater, on Friday, March 16, 1990. Whittier College students, alumnus, and delegates from academic institutions participated in the marching. An informal luncheon held at the quad took place immediately after the ceremony.

President Ash was congratulated by Chairman of the Board of Trustees, Rayburn S. Dezember.

The marching was led by Dr. Dallas Rhodes, Dr. John Moody, and Dr. Dick Archer.

Moliere's Scapin

Is a Hit

Scapin was hilarious! This successful comedy by Moliere brought the house down at the Whittier Civic Auditorium March 15-17.

The play began with two youths, Octave and Leandre, who had fallen in love with Hyacinte and Zerbinette, respectively. Their fathers soon found out about these forbidden liaisons and threatened to wreak havoc. Scapin, Leandre's clever servant, came to their rescue with slapsticks and plots. His entire scheme would've gone awry had they not discovered that Zerbinette was actually Octave's half-sister and Hyacinte Leandre's sister.

MONA KAI 1990

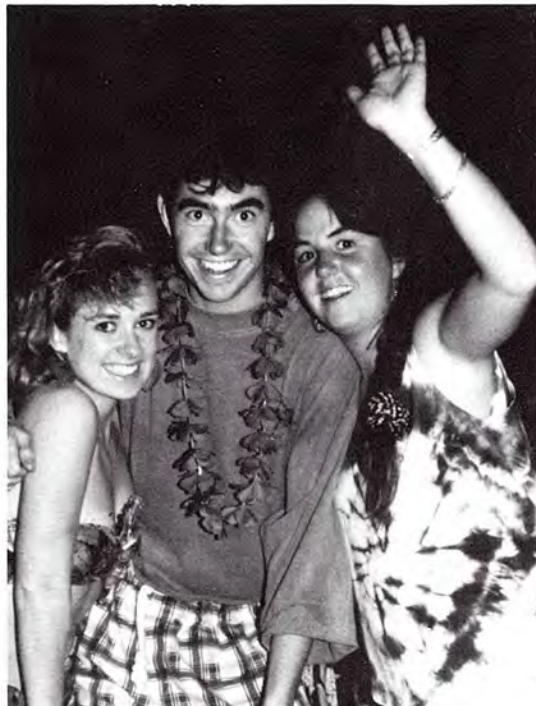

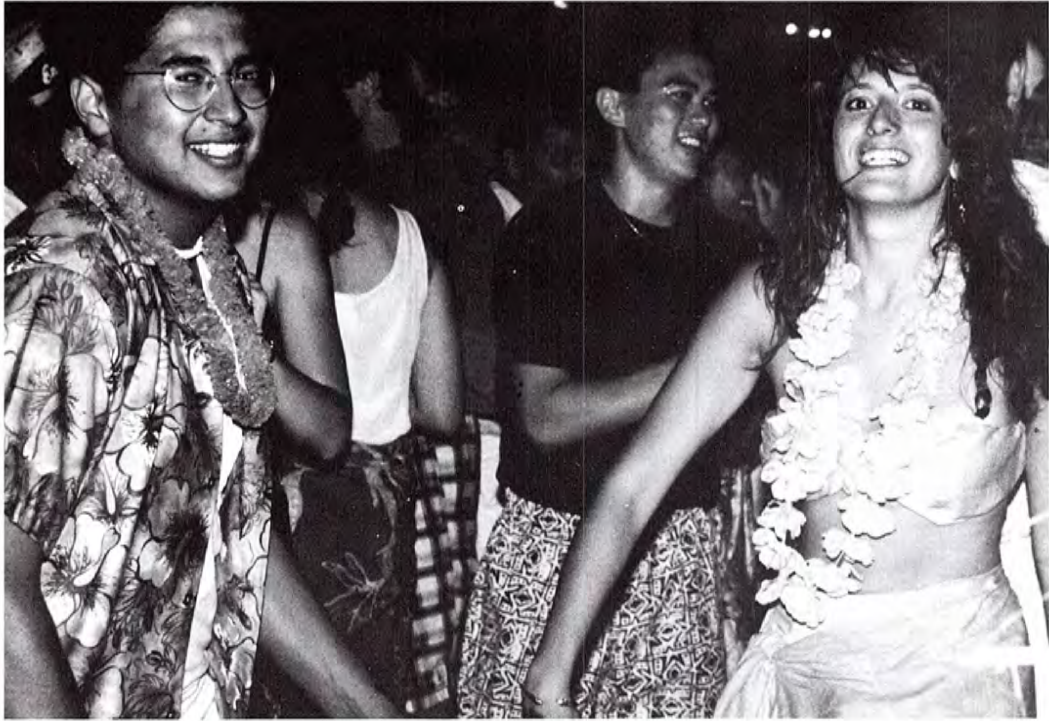

Everyone say Party! Fiesta!

Mona Kai was held on April 21, 1990 at Whittier Square located on Penn & Washington. The frolicsome and exotic event began at 8:00 pm and ended at 12:30 am. The cost per couple was $8.00 or $5.00 stag. For entertainment, a live band was there to play everyone's favorite top songs to dance all night. To accompany the theme, 30 tons of sand were spread out on the dance floor. It was co-sponsored by the Lancer Society, Bud Light, and ASWC.

Season Ends With On the Verge

The Whittier Theater Department performed its last production, On the Verge, May third to the fifth. It began slowly, but picked up its momentum and carried to the end.

The play was about three Victorian ladies, Mary, Fanny, and Alexandra, who travel through time exploring Terra Incognita. On the way, they recorded their reactions to the various stereotypical personalities they encounter. At the end, Alexandra and Fanny decided they found their home in 1955 and remained in America. Mary, however continued her explorations.

Speakers

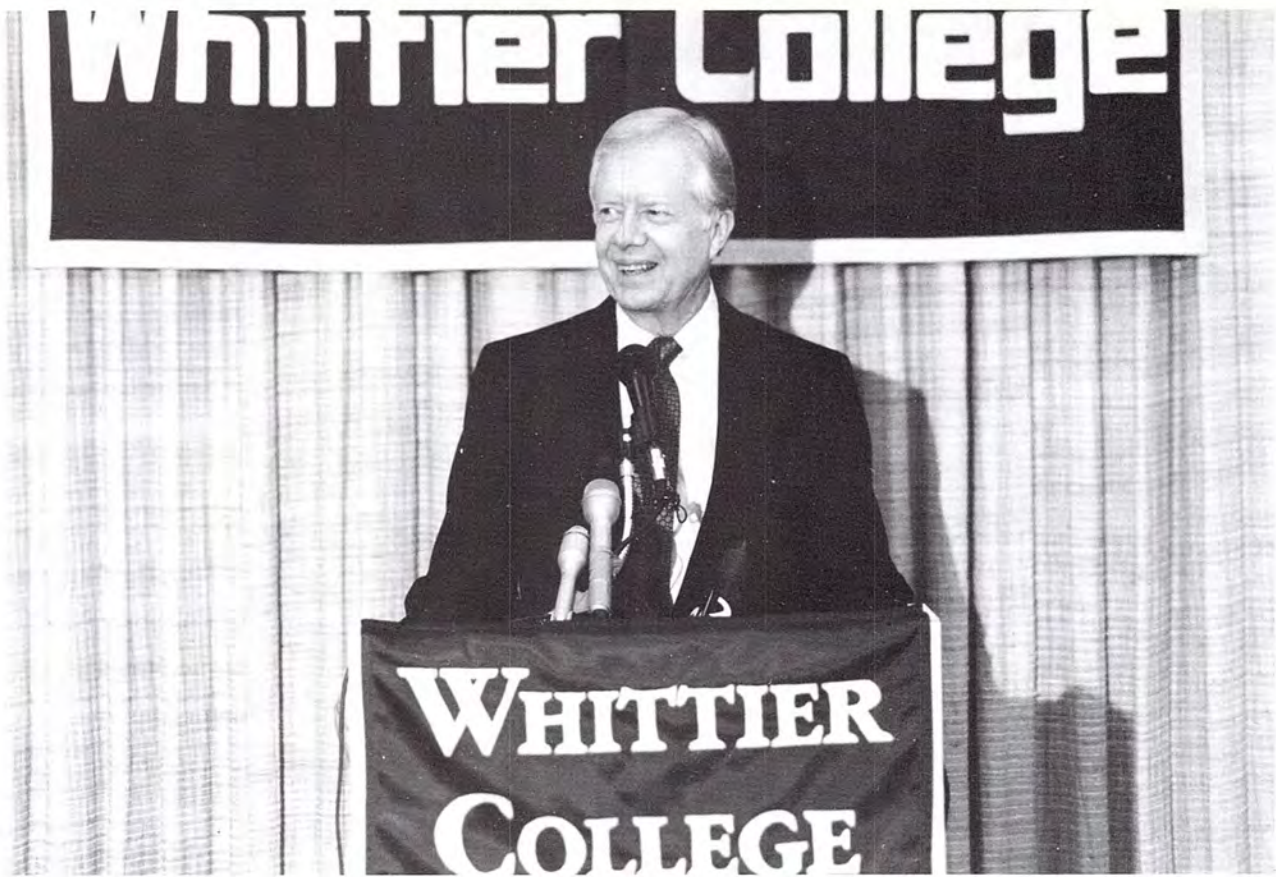

This year Whittier College was honored with the presence of some very renowned guest speakers, such as in February when the college held a political debate between the two leading women in American politics, Phyllis Schlafly and Sarah Weddington. Both Schlafly and Weddington have achieved national recognition on separate occasions for their influences on American Constitutional policy. Schlafly led the successful battle to defeat the Equal Rights Amendment, and Weddington at age 26, won the landmark Roe v. Wade Supreme Court case which assured women the right and choice to continue or terminate an unwanted pregnancy. Whittier College was also visited by former president Jimmy Carter. He spoke at this year's dinner of the John Greenleaf Whittier Society. Active in politics and civic affairs all his life, on May 8, 1990, he provided an informative evening addressing many important issues focusing on the nation and world today.

CLUBS &

ORGANIZATIONS

Alpha Pi Delta

Alpha Pi Delta's function is to be a link between the business community of Whittier and that of the college. We try to provide the campus with educational programs in the area of business and economics. Some of our functions include credit card membership drives and information on interviewing procedures.

Alpha Psi Omega

Alpha Psi Omega is the largest national honorary dramatics fraternity in the world. To become a member, acting and technical points must be earned by being active in the theatre department. Potential members earn points from the four productions done throughout the year, being in the directing class, and possible student productions. Members of this fraternity are recognized in theatrical productions with an asterisk (*) by their names.

The Ancient Order of the Knights of Penn Dragon group is a Renaissance revivalist society who are often seen involved in mock battles late at night. Members also support the theatrical productions performed by Whittier students, and sponsored the second masquerade ball held this spring in the Faculty Center. Each year a king or queen is crowned, with Heidi Gustafson being queen for this year.

Asian Students Association

A.S.A. is a cultural and social organization formed by those who are interested in the peoples and traditions of Asia. The only requirement to become a member is a genuine interest in Asian culture. The infamous annual Asian Festival brings together the talents and cultural knowledge of all the members to serve a multi-cultural dinner and to perform a substantial program for the Whittier College community. Members also support equal rights and anti-discrimination movements around the Los Angeles area, participating in a demonstration against a local dance club guilty of discrimination.

Starting off the year the Black Collegian Association became the Black Student Union. In an effort to raise public awareness of problems with black retention rates and other minority concerns, BSU met several times with school administrators to voice their concerns and ideas, wrote editorials to the Quaker Campus, and held a successfully attended a protest in May. A major focus of BSU this year was to voice their need of a black school administrator; the protest was instrumental in attaining that goal. One setback was the loss of Hugh Mendez as advisor at the end of the year.

Black Student Union

Board of Governors

The Board of Governors has attempted to become more visible on campus this year by moving meetings into the residence halls. This did not help the members' attendance since no one on the board was present at all meetings, and one member was replaced due to absences. Because of the many changes occurring around Whittier this year, BOG became a voice for student concerns.

Cap and Gown

Mainly an honor group for senior women active on campus, Cap and Gown meets several times a semester to discuss women's issues on campus. One of their main functions is to update an alumni roster and review books that support women for the library to purchase. These busy women did find time at the end of the year to help paint a local church. Junior women were chosen in May on their academic records and school involvement to be inducted into this organization. Membership went from nine this year to twelve for next year.

The Friday Afternoon Club Unlimited, more commonly known as F.A.C.U. is a bunch of guys who gather at the end of the week to relax and enjoy some cool refreshments! The club competes in several intramural sports; winning the basketball title this year. Members enjoy stags with other societies, and usually have biannual initiations. Though student participation has fallen in recent years, the members' enthusiasm has not.

Choir

Choir was again very active this year. Ending first semester with the Magic Feast, the members of choir came back in January to start practicing for the inauguration of President James Ash. Spring Break found them in Hawaii on a tour of the islands, but they were soon back in Whittier to perform at the John Greenleaf Whittier Dinner in front of President Jimmy Carter. The annual Bach Festival contained many individual members and the choir as a whole, and they didn't leave out the Music at Noon concerts held at Whittier.

Hawaiian Islander Club

The Hawaiian Islander Club, which has been in existence for over twenty years, was a huge success this year. With the purpose of uniting students from the islands of Hawaii, the club creates a feeling of unity, or "OHANA." With 43 members the club is not limited to just those from Hawaii since other students who wish to share in the Hawaiian culture are welcome to join as well. Participating in luaus, car washes, raffles, and a "Hawaiian Splach" party the members were busy throughout the year. ALOHA!

Hispanic Student Assn.

The Hispanic Student Association strongly supports and encourages Hispanic students of Whittier College to pursue their goals. It also sponsors annual events like the Tardeada, the traditional Christmas toast, the Big Hermano-Big Hermana Program, Brindis Naxideño, the Parents Recognition Dinner, and the Hispanic Graduation Reception. Members work closely with the Alumni organizations. "Alianza de los Amigos."

Inner-Society

Faced with some challenging administrative attitudes, Inner-Society ended the year a stronger, self contained unit. New procedures were written, and old ones clarified, so that the council could deal with issues brought before them in a concise orderly manner. Such issues this year were the changes in pledging attitudes, clubs wanting society status, housing conflicts, and other society differences. Positive steps were taken this year to make the council stronger and more united.

Omicron Delta Kappa

Omicron Delta Kappa is a national honor society recognizing outstanding students in the areas of leadership, academic achievements, and community service. The Whittier College chapter was founded in 1960 and continues to grow each year, with this year's new members numbering 13, over this year's senior members' count of ten.

To encourage, stimulate, maintain the scholarship of its members, and advance the science of psychology is the purpose of Psi Chi, the national honor society for Psychology. Members held a fireside chat on graduate schools, and hosted the first Psychology Awareness Week. In all, they want to promote Psychology awareness.

Quaker Campus

As usual the staff of the Quaker Campus was busy keeping abreast of the news occurring on campus. Some of the bigger stories this year were the Campus Inn fire, the President's Inauguration, the John Greenleaf Whittier Dinner, and the Black Student Union's concerns. This year found them ruffling a few feathers, but also doing good reporting.

Resident Advisors

R.A.'s are probably some of the most infamous of students on campus. They are selected because of their ability to do the job and their desire to work with students. Although the job involves many hours of work, which is especially difficult on Saturday duty nights, the knowledge that R.A.'s are helping students makes the job worthwhile.

Wind Ensemble

This year wind Ensemble started off by playing at all of the home football games in the disguise of a pep band. They were not limited to only that mode of performance though. By performing at the Whittier Retirement Villa and the Chateau Whittier they were able to perform some older favorites. Their concerts on the Hoover Patio let them integrate classical, popular, jazz, television tunes, and movie themes into their performances.

SOCIETIES

Celebrate!

Pledge: a solemn promise; bind by a promise
Society: a group of persons joined together for a common purpose or by a common interest. Company; companionship.

These definitions are from the Thorndike Barnhart Intermediate Dictionary, but they only tell part of what pledging and societies mean. Pledging is a time to grow close to people who were possible strangers before, but who become close friends after pledging is over. Brotherhood and Sisterhood then forms the backbone for societies. People come together for common goals and companionship, but they find much more. Friends are made, lessons learned, and memories made. Along with societies comes traditions that are passed from members to members. Homecoming each year re-establishes the bonds made while at Whittier. These bonds often last a lifetime and are the roots to many of Whittier's alumni. Apart people are individuals, together they are a group of individuals that can make things happen at Whittier. Pledging may change in years to come, but Brotherhood and Sisterhood will last forever.

The Last Hurrah ! ! ! !

SPORTS

SPORTS

Even though Chris Parsons was involved in the game, he was amazed at the condition of the field.

Paul Maestas tried to find a place to sit on the bench.

Peter Topaz, weighing the pros and cons of the situation, bears down against the pain.

Taking a moment to pose, Chris Perkins figured out exactly how to kick the ball.

The Poet Men's Soccer team faced a tough 1989 season and finished with a 4-15 record overall. The high point of the season was a win against rival Occidental. although the team faced several losses, they stuck together and kept a fantastic attitude that other soccer teams couldn't help but notice. Coach Turek sees great potential for the team in the future, and the players are looking forward to an even better season next year.

Taking accurate aim, Peter Topaz wound up for the kick.

Chad Campbell prepared to attack the ball.

Men's Soccer

Women's Soccer

It is difficult to come away from a season filled with losses and still feel confident that your team did its best. The 1989-90 Women's Soccer Team faced tough and grueling opponents in the SCIAC league, yet still manage to give their opponents a run for their money. The team can still feel proud that four members made All-Conference: Lenore Filler, Amanda Chesley, Beth Ladd and Carol Atencio. The coaches along with the team look forward to a stronger season next year.

Nearly all eyes watched the action.

Kathy Seymour's look of determination would intimidate anyone.

Preparing with a powerful stance, Liddy Kimball aimed her shot.

Amy Adams and an opposing team member teamed up against the spider that was on the field.

Carol Antencio and Liddie Kimball felt the need to escort Samantha Fingleton to the nearest puddle.

Jorge called for the Perrier man as Henry freshened up.

Shaan was able to run even though he had been sleep walking.

The 1989 Cross Country season proved to be successful, especially for the women who participated. Wendy Guthrie and Angie Lovell received the honor of being named on the first team all-conference. Whittier also had two women place on the second team all-conference, Laura Holmes and Heather Nabours. The Poet women finished fourth overall at the SCIAC cross-country championships, held at La Mirada Park. Whittier's men placed sixth out of seven teams to finish their season. Coach Greg Phillips is looking forward to an even better season next year.

The men of Whittier! (Swimsuit issue coming out soon.)

Theme song for the road: "We All Live in a Brown Camper."

It was suddenly Phil's turn to play the leader in today's game.

Cross-Country

Football

The football season of 1989 proved to be one full of peaks and valleys for this year's poets. With a season full of grueling challenges, the Poets managed a 3-5 record. One highlight was the stunning 36-12 homecoming victory over rival Pomona-Pitzer. The Poet team also suffered a loss over the announcement that Coach Mendez would be stepping down as head coach at the end of the season. But the future is bright and the team looks forward to an even better season in 1990.

Poet players set their plan of action.

Christopher Quesnel and Sean Keenan stopped the clock to do a little handjive.

A Poet used the techniques he learned in Analysis of Dance out on the field.

This man wanted to prove that Poets can do the Icky Shuffle.

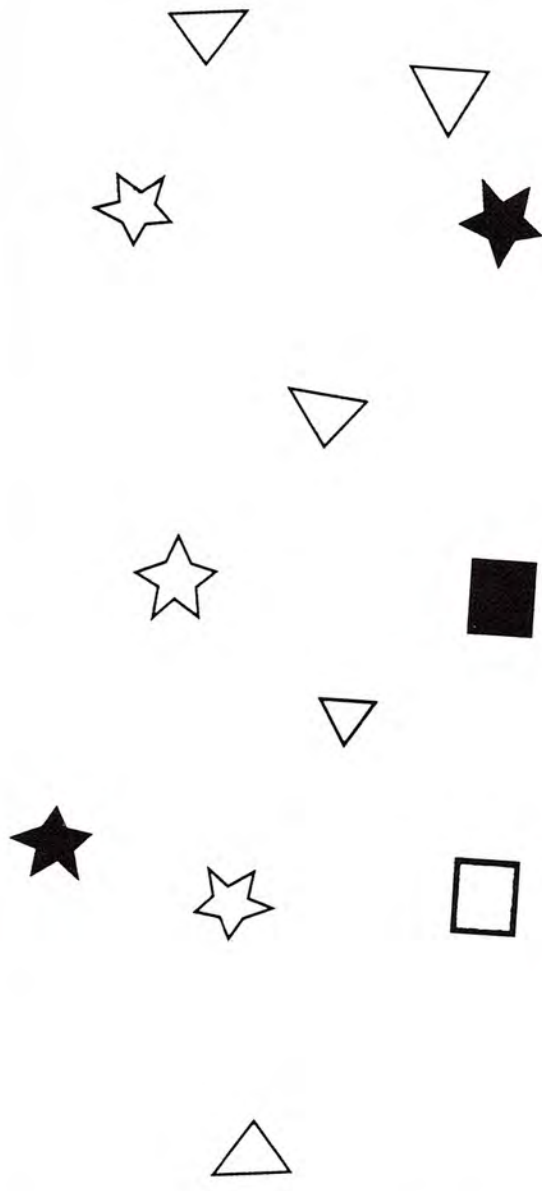

Dancin' Dave Cruz discovered the advantages of tape over shoelaces for showing his moves on the field.

As coach Mendez, a ref, and a Whittier player broke into song Mike Hess felt left out because they had started without him.

1990 Whittier College Poets

Susan stretches to set the ball for Morgan.

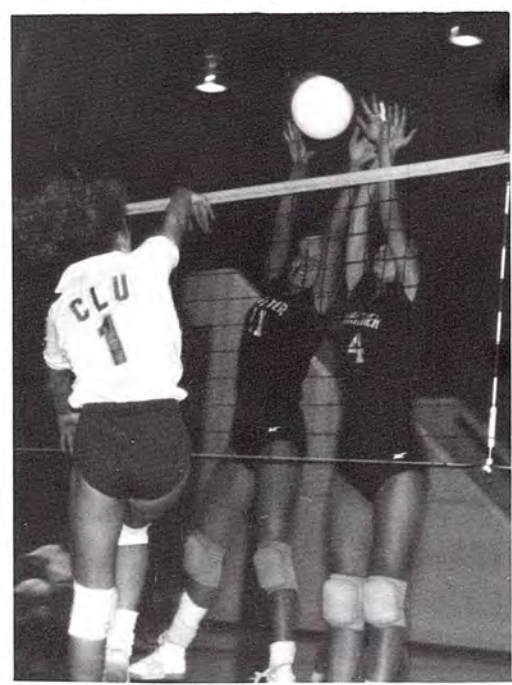

Andrea gets down low to set the ball for her teammates.

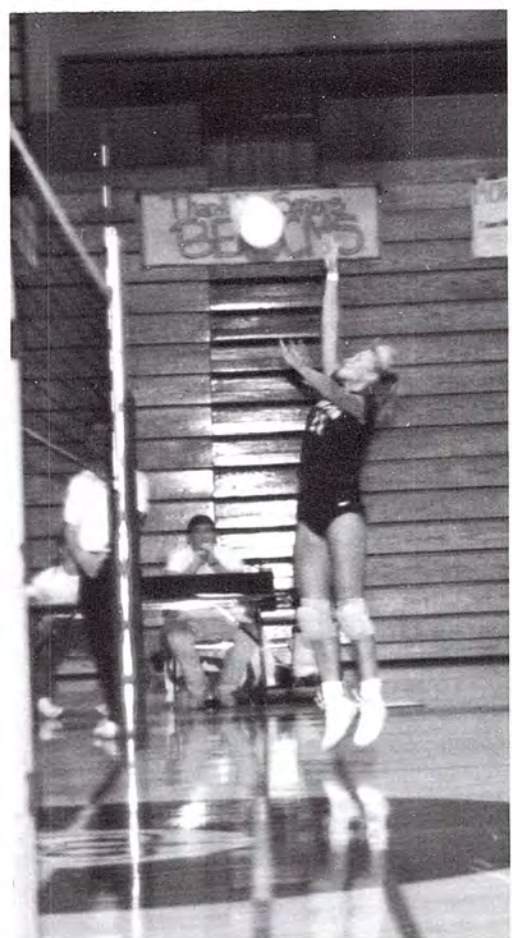

Although this year's Volleyball team was unable to prevent several losses during their season, they were able to place fourth out of the seven that competed in the Whittier College Invitational Tournament. Head Coach Sherry Calvert directed a team composed of new and returning players. Shana Jenner and Morgan Bowman were two such returning players who helped lead the team.

Becky and Alice go up together to block an opponent's spike.

Becky jumps high to slam down a spike.

Andrea sets the ball into the air so that Susan can spike it.

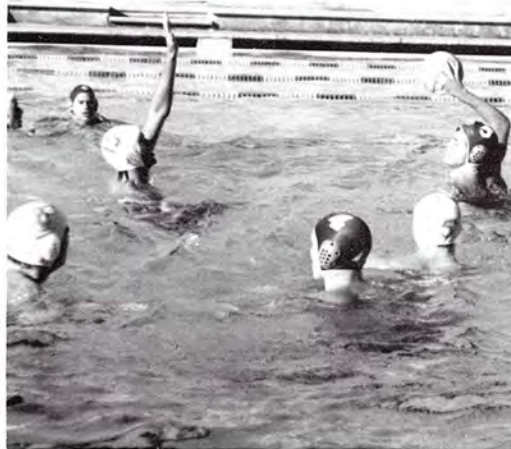

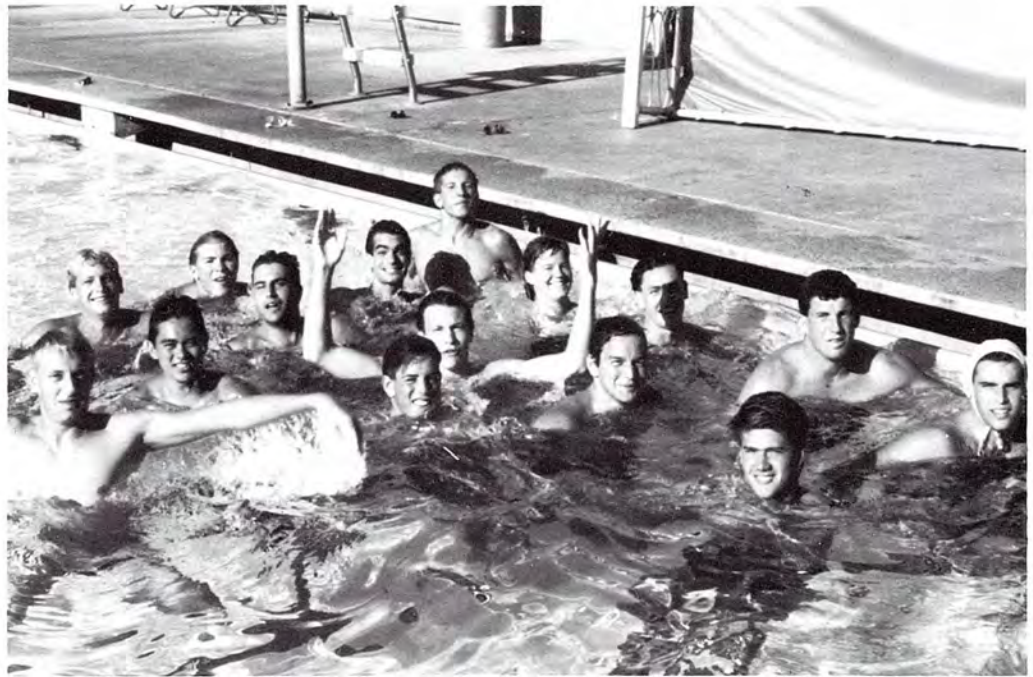

Volleyball

Men's Water Polo

The Poet Water Polo squad finished the 1989 season by placing third out of six teams in the SCIA finals. The squad was led by co-captains Paul Gothold and Ashley Gray although the season was rocky for the team, Coach Jeff Hohne was pleased with the players performances and looks forward to a strong 1990 squad.

The polo team got out to tell us exactly why they thought about the other team.

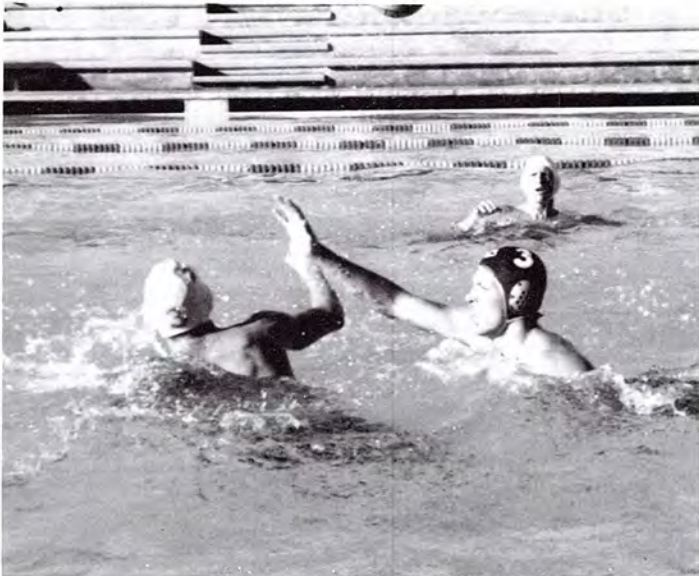

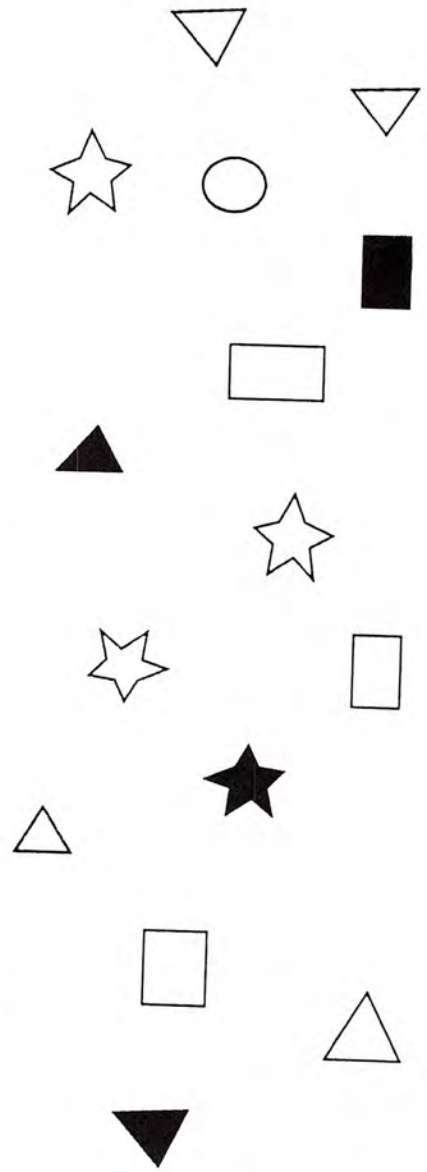

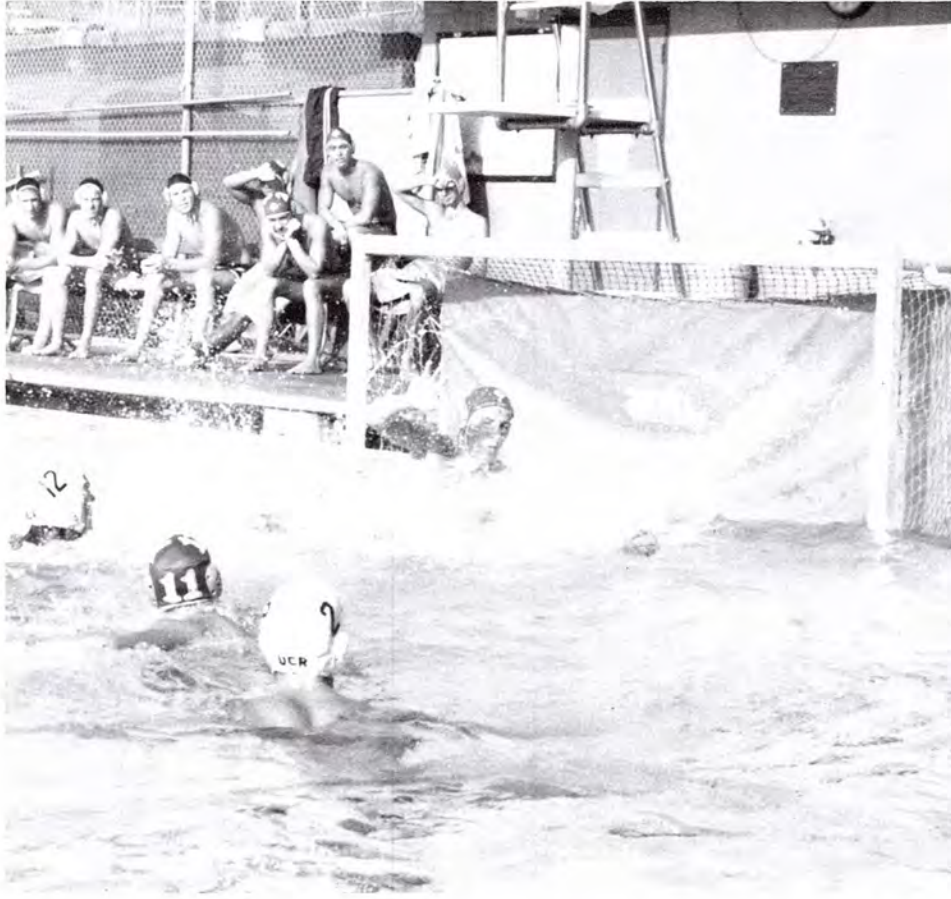

With a look of determination, this Whittier player tries to find a place for the ball.

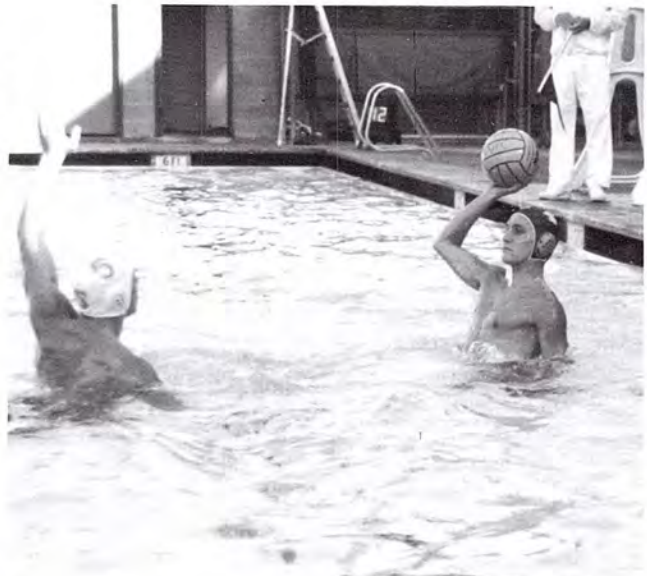

Even as a Whittier player was rushed by an opponent, Greg Farmer was able to maintain the GQ pose.

Greg, a mommy's nightmare in the tub, causes a big splash and saves the point.

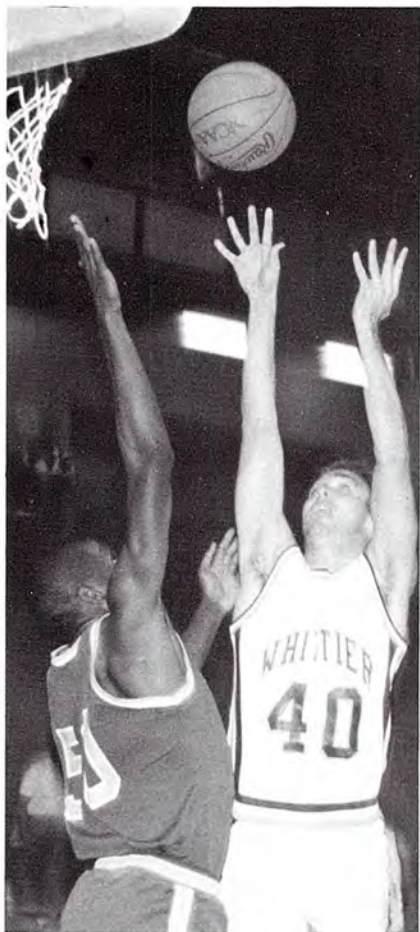

"Hey! Guys? Quit holding hands!"

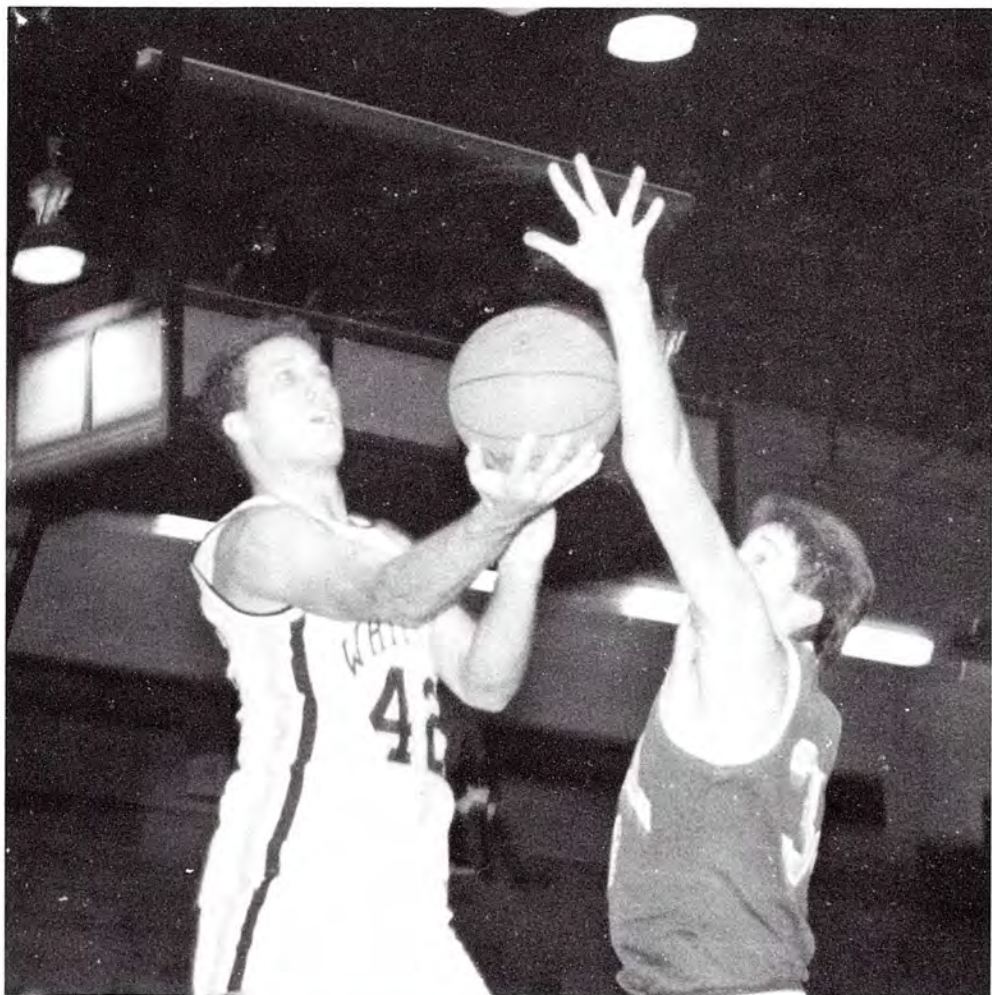

This looks like just another day at the beach for this player.

Stretching to put the ball into the basket, this team member gets past his opponent.

Whalin used a scooping action to get the ball into the basket.

Getting a good domino effect going, Raoul aimed for the basket.

Dave took launch toward the basket.

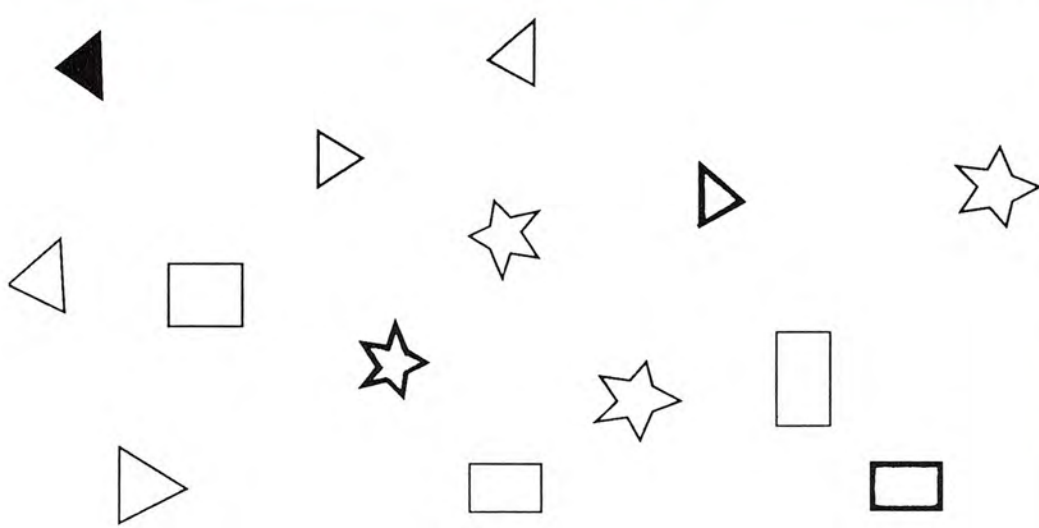

Our Men's Basketball team played an extremely challenging season; facing off against several league competitors. Head Coach Dave Jacobs, brought the team into their first league game against Occidental. Co-captains, Whalen Elmore and Dave Hune, shared the responsibility, along with other team members, of keeping spirits high when games proved to be more than difficult. With a stunning victory over Claremont the Poet team managed to end the season on a successful note.

Practicing the art of osmosis Chris became one with the ball.

Men's Basketball

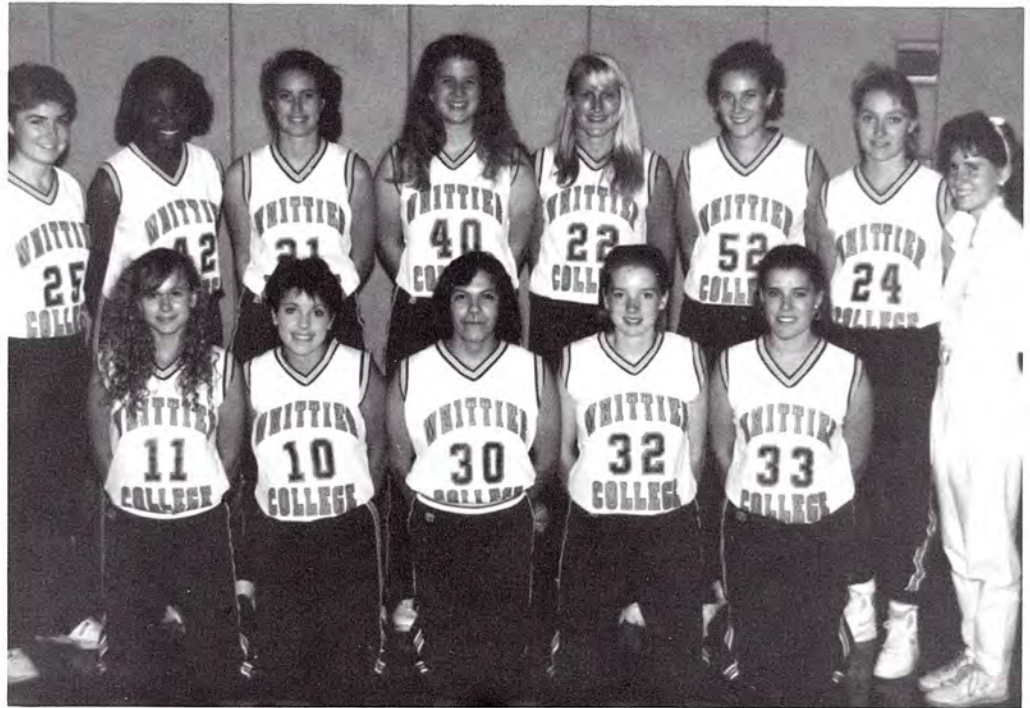

Women's Basketball

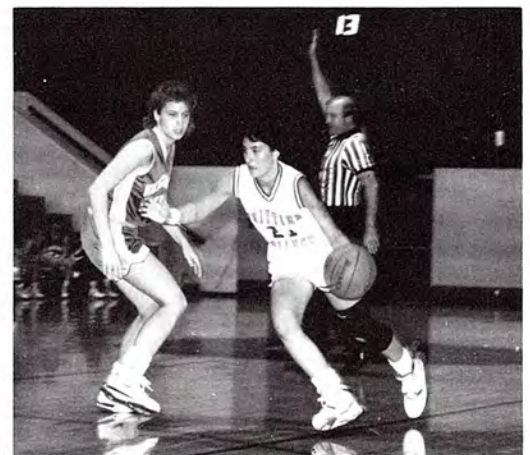

Spirit and determination are the elements of a strong team, and even though the Lady Poets Basketball team did not have a brilliant season they did not lack these important elements. Coached by Patricia Lozano and Michelle Chomics the young squad, composed mostly of freshman, gave their very best and are determined to do even better next season.

Maureen Morrison was mesmerized by the action on the court.

Lisa Scott brushes her opponent aside as she makes her way toward the basket.

Lisa Scott concentrates in preparation for a free throw.

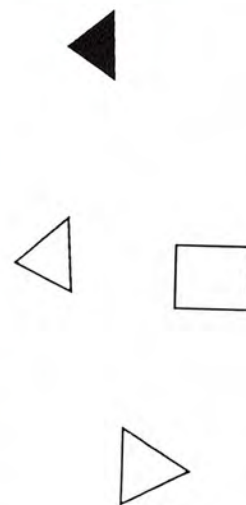

J'Lynn Mathews passes off the ball to her teammate.

Jen Taylor works out a strategy as she avoids her opponent.

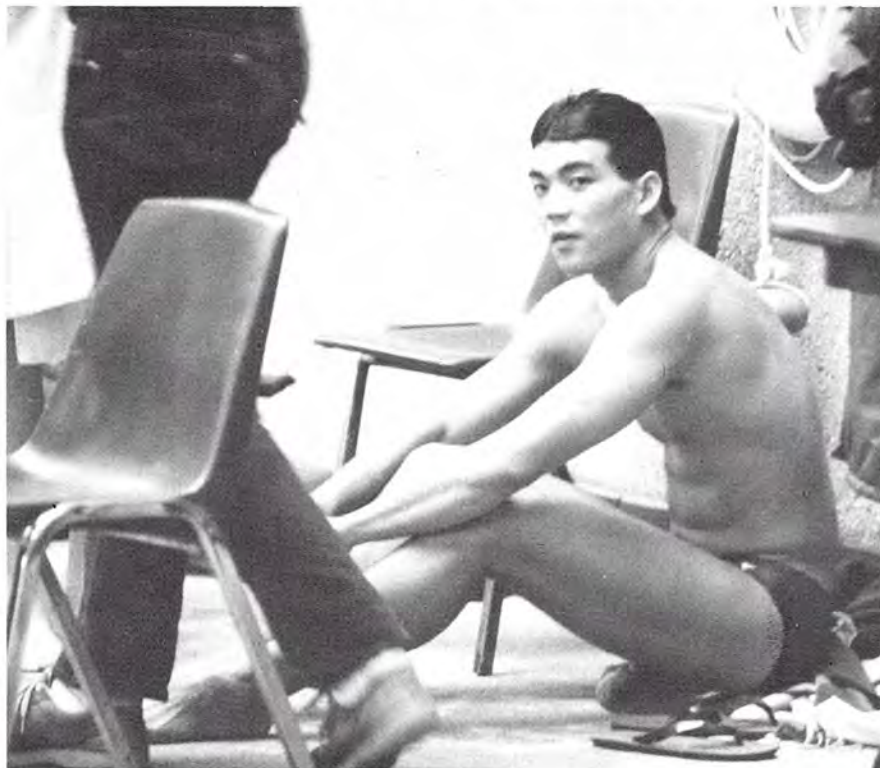

Player Kathy Seymour works the ball across the court to make the shot.

Bruce found a quiet spot to sit while he concentrated on his race.

Heather Johnson and Greg Farmer looked over the heat sheet while Dana conjured up something mischievous to do.

Wearing a swim cap does tend to cheer some people up — Kileen more than others, however.

Katrina suddenly realized that the water she was swimming in was really cold.

The 1989-90 Poet Swim team was composed of 28 women and 5 men, with a total of 21 new swimmers to the squad. Coached by Greg Farmer the team witnessed several successes; for instance Charlotte Michel competed with over 50 divers at the Nationals in Massachusetts. Facing stiff competition at several meets the swim team performed at their best and plan to be ready next year with an even stronger squad.

Dana spent some time perfecting her treading technique.

Trying to pass for a frog, Kristy Tabayoyon concentrated on the swim ahead of her.

Mark and Sanji spent some quality time on the bleachers discussing the latest in swimming fashion.

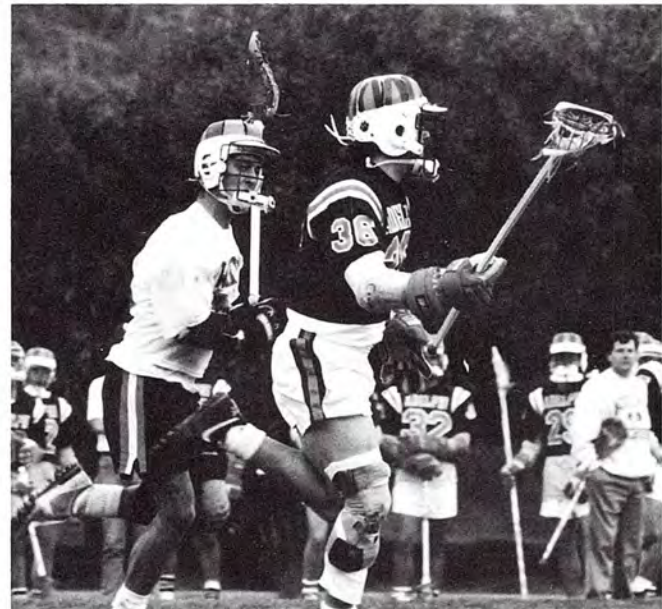

Swimming

Men's Lacrosse

The Poet Lacrosse team has earned the reputation of being "The Best in the West" through lots of hard and grueling work. The team coached by Doug Locker was composed of a number of All League players. Although plagued by injuries early in the season, the team pulled off many stunning wins, proving that they deserved the reputation they earned.

As the tension rises . . .

This is just another example of how this team has bonded.

Now let's see . . . he's got the ball, I want it. I will get it from him through a brut exhibition of skill. I like this game.

Fridge, lookin' vicious with his stick.

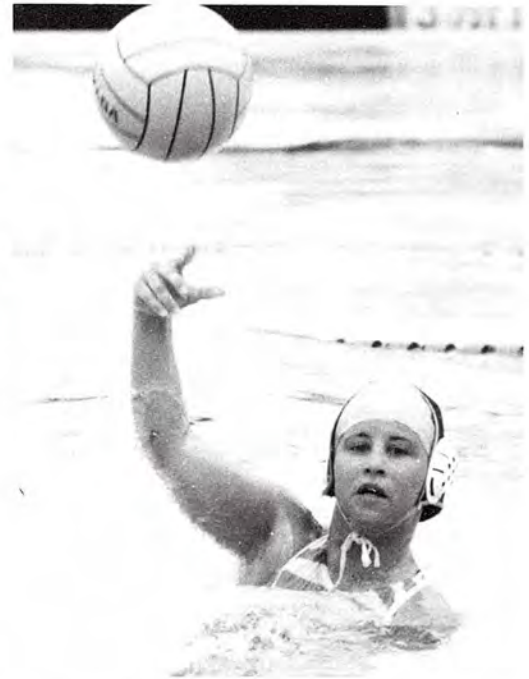

Pat Austin, showing them the Canadian way!

Kim carefully swam with the ball away from her opponent.

Raising herself up in the water, Mindy prepared to protect the goal from the ball.

Amy passed the ball with ease and grace.

Though still a relatively new team to our campus, this year's Women's Water Polo team played an outstanding season. Coached by Sophomore Ashley Gray, the Poet team placed second in the SCIAC tournament held at Whittier. Senior Theresa Holt helped lead the team with several goals and assists. Junior Mindy McQuivey and Susan Smith were named All-SCIAC selections. This team has reason to be proud.

Heather and her opponent struggled against an unseen force in the pool.

Erika evaluated the situation before tossing the ball.

Women's Water Polo

Baseball

The 1989-90 Poet Baseball team could be seen every weekday practicing for several hours proving that perseverance was a strong thread in this years team. Lead by the strong pitching arm of senior Alike Kauleinamoku the team faced tough challenges from all sides, but ended up faring very well. Coached by Jim Pigott, the team looks forward to maintaining their winning performances next year.

Freshman RC Chavez up to bat for the Poets.

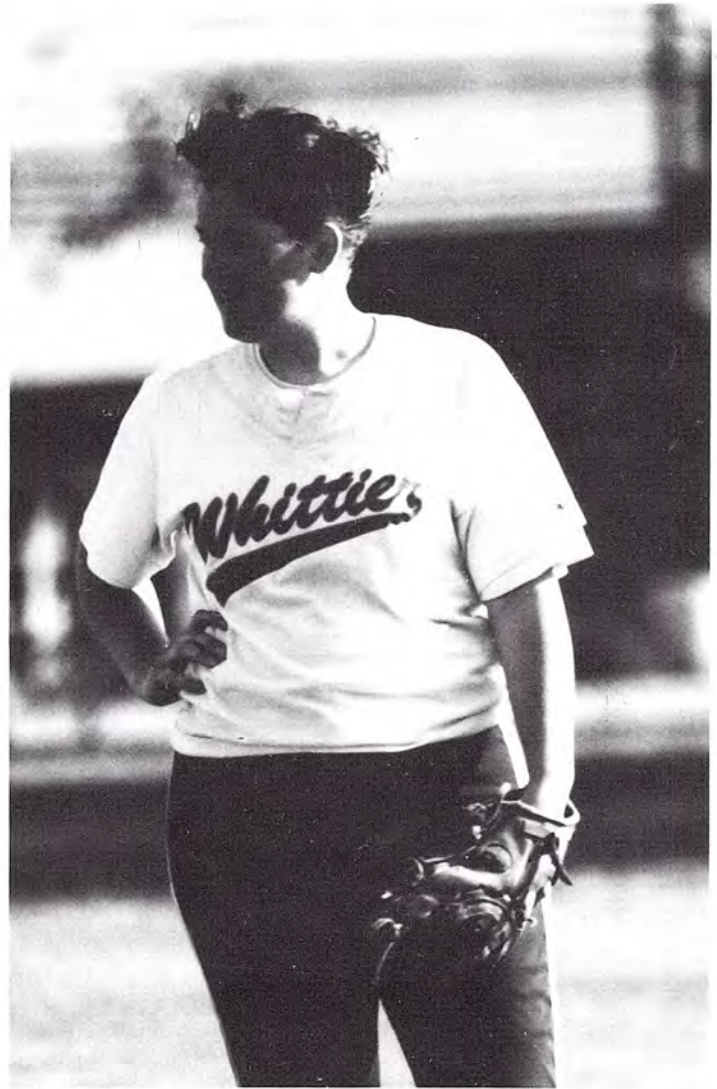

Dave Berliner and Noah Davis congratulate Bob Kittle on the winning play.

Mike Westmoreland is prepared for action.

Jana Mitchell, an incredible pitcher, took a moment out to see who was up to bat.

Putting all of her might and energy behind the bat, Jen Taylor prepared to smash the ball.

Kelly Kirste forgot her Carmex and now wishes that she hadn't.

Preparing to run rapidly to the next base, Lisa Scott got into a crouch position.

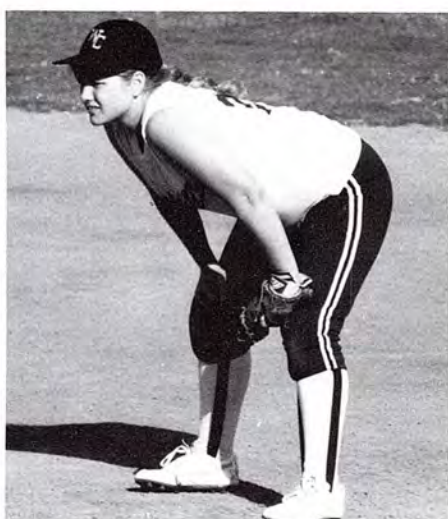

Even though the Lady Poet Softball Team was a young squad during this season, they still placed an impressive third in league play. Coached by Bob Giomi, and his assistants Dr. Mike McBride and Dr. Warren Hanson, this team could be seen everyday after class practicing to improve their game. All their hard work paid off with the team breaking over 30 school records this past season.

Coach McBride and Darcie Gaare had a lot of fun gossiping at this particular game.

Tina Hulcy enjoyed the sun while she concentrated on the game.

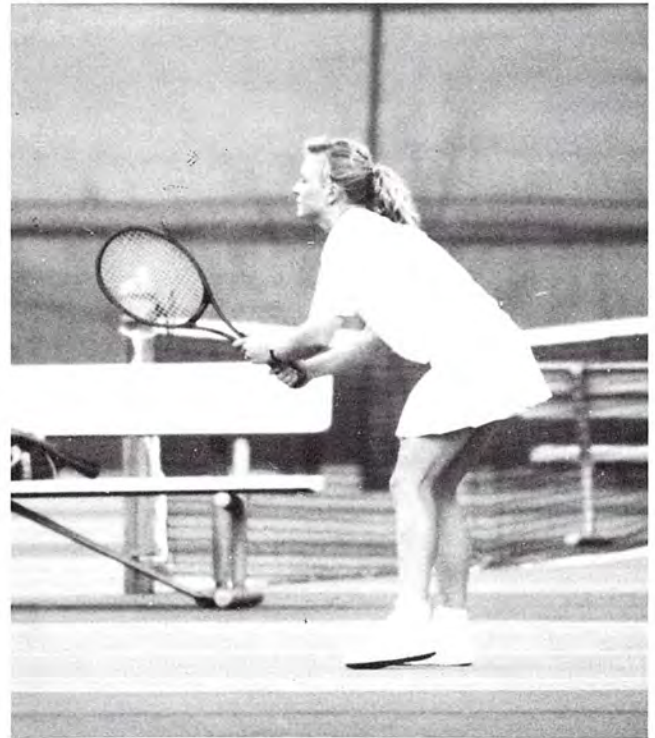

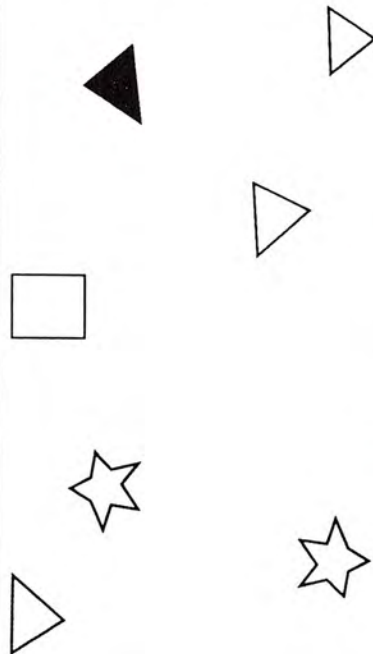

Women's Softball

Tennis

Senior Jennifer Lindholm led the Lady Poet's Tennis Team with a spectacular season. Coming off the injured list from last year, she was seated first on the women's team and had a personal best season. Outstanding Freshman players such as Ligh Silver and Mark Belgin led the men's team to several wins. This was an improvement since the men's team has been plagued by low membership, causing them to face more problems than just their opponents. This year though the team was full of spunk and played well. Coaches this year were Brett Marymee for the men, and Laura Weber for the women.

EDITOR'S NOTE: We regret that our film of the men was unusable due to technical difficulties.

Becky crouched and prepared for the ball heading toward her.

Christy hit the ball perfectly to where she wanted it to go.

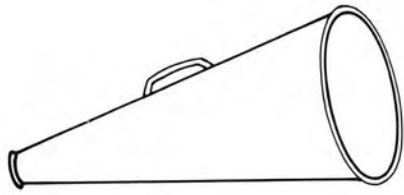

Jennifer, who had an excellent season, waited for the ball.

Spirit and pride! That is what the 1989 Poet Cheerleaders brought to Whittier college during the football season. Their work began with the traditional stay at camp in Santa Barbara where they competed against other schools, and brought back ribbons to prove their effort. With their enthusiastic presence and the aide of Friday the Squirrel, the cheerleaders showed their support for Whittier College and its football team. A special good-bye is offered to the three seniors who have kept the squad going for so long . . . Gina Lujan, Michelle Dodge, and Erika Strumpf.
