- I. Meeting is called to order at: 5:34 pm
- II. Moment of Silence/Inspirational quote
 - A. INSPIRATIONAL QUOTE

Read By: Sen. Ross
- III. Mission Statement
 - A. The ASWC Senate, as the governing body of the Associated Students of Whittier College, is dedicated to the betterment of the college as an institution and as a member of the broader community. The Senate shall assist on-campus clubs and organizations in creating, promoting and implementing dynamic programs and events that involve students and add value to their educational experience. This body will act as an open forum for students to voice their opinions and desires, always keeping the best interests of the ASWC in mind. In all its actions, the Senate will serve the students first with integrity, dedication, responsibility and humility.

 - A. Present: Sen. Casserly-Simmons, Sen. Minami, Sen. Iseri, Sen. Hagan-Martin, Sen. Ross, Sen. Mendoza, Sen. Torres, Sen. Malone, Sen. Modesti, Tres. Estrada, VP Joachim, Pres. Moya, Dir. Tejada, Sec. Brost, Dir. Gil, Sen. Royster, Sen. Gracia, Sen. Segura, Sen. Garrison, Sen. Eccles, Sen. Angileri, Sen. Hidalgo, Sen. Alvarez
 - B. Absent excused:
 - C. Unexcused: Sen. Green,
- V. Minutes Amendment/Approval
 - A. Approved by: Sen. Mendoza
 - B. Seconded by: Sen. Casserly-Simmons
- VI. Public Voice
 - A. Spencer VanDerStarren: I wanted to voice my support for the environmental bill. I fully support it. I have seen a lot of work done to it and it shows. I fully support environmental issues that happen on campus. I just wanted to be here to show my support for this bill.
 - B. Piper Lowinger: I am also here to support the bill as well. Since whittier isn't adapting to the environment as fast as students would like it to, I think it is a great deal because it touches on a lot of different aspects of our student community and life. It has students commit to a more sustainable way. I think there is something in this bill for everyone. Depending on how the Senate votes tonight, this can change the school in a green way.

- C. Maddie McMurray is an alumni who wrote the environment action advocate onto the senate. She says that she is in full support of the bill.
- D. Eric Dutra: I came here to support the bill as well. I was here last week and I talked about my concerns for the bill. Dalton invited me to the committee meeting and we made a compromise which I'm very happy with.

VII. President's Message - *President Moya

- A. Good evening everyone, I hope everyone is doing well and staying strong during our final weeks of the semester. It is such a bittersweet feeling to be delivering my last President's Message this evening. I know these past couple of weeks have been tough and this Senate table has been tested and faced with unprecedented obstacles. During a time where it can be very difficult to remain positive and celebrate one's accomplishments, I wanted to remind you all and the Whittier College community of all that we have achieved this semester. Since its inception in 1904, the mission of the ASWC Senate has been to serve the students of the College with integrity, dedication, responsibility, and humility. I am proud to say that this group has successfully continued this legacy. To say this Senate table has accomplished a lot is an understatement. Over the course of this academic year this table has passed 8 bills and proclamations and funded $ worth of student events, initiatives, and resources. This academic year started with the passing of a bill that recognized Media Council's unique role on campus as a watchdog and ensured that student body fees allocated to Media Council were distributed directly by the Business Office and to prevent any conflict of interests. In addition, the Media Council Representative became a non-voting member of ASWC Senate, acting as a liaison between the two bodies. This bill not only improved the relationship between the Senate and Media Council but set a precedent of collaboration and transparency for the rest of the academic year. Soon into the year, we were faced with one of our first big challenges: a financial deficit of over $10,000.00. This deficit signified not only a lack of administrative oversight, but shed light into the lack of support and resources for our student clubs and organizations. Through months of discussion, meetings, and negotiations, this table was able to get the College to take accountability and cover this deficit. Although this obstacle was time consuming and tested all of our limits, it started long overdue conversations around fiscal responsibility, transparency, and accountability. Let this be a reminder that this will never happen again. The start of the Spring semester was rang in with the controversial topic of Whittfest. In the midst of tension and differing opinions, this table innovative mechanisms to connect with students with urgency, after over 6 hours spent in meetings the table was able to come to a decision. This not only started conversations around equity, but helped ASWC Senate as a governing body deal with petitions and student initiatives in a more effective manner. In this same month, this ASWC Senate was the first Senate table to meet with the college's Board of Trustees, marking the start of a more transparent and productive relationship. Next we were faced with the largest challenge an ASWC Senate has faced to date: a global pandemic. Since the College's decision to carry out the remainder of the semester online, our table diligently raised student voices, held administrators accountable, and worked together to develop new and accessible methods of engaging with constituents.

With that, I would like to thank every student who entrusted us with their concerns, who challenged us, and helped us meet the needs of students. Every single one of your voices matters, and I am confident this next group of Senators will successfully amplify your voices and create even more change. If there is anything this awful disease has done, it reveals the disparities and inequities that exist within this institution. With that, I challenge you all to continue fighting and persevering. You all have the power to create great change not only on campus, but within this world. Never lose sight of your strength, capabilities, and power. Words cannot express my deepest appreciation and gratitude to have served as your ASWC Senate President and to have worked with such incredible individuals like you all. I am so proud of all that this table has accomplished. You are all phenomenal leaders who truly exemplified what it means to be a servant to the community. The memories and lessons this table has taught me, I will carry forever. Thank you.

1. Deanna: I just personally want to thank Destinee. You are a role model, even for me. In the summer you had a lot of plans and goals, and you accomplished all of them. Thank you for all you have done.
2. Dir. Tejada: Destinee, you have guided me through all my decision making. You have done this job amazing. I am so lucky to have known you and to have worked with you.
3. Christine: I just want to say thank you for your leadership. This year was not easy and you all did well.
4. Sen. Hagan-Martin: I just want to say thank you for all you have done on the Senate. You were an amazing leader and president.

5. Sen. Royster: You begin to realize the impact people have in your life when you have to do things without them. Without seeing you on the Senate table every Monday is going to be difficult but with your guidance, we will be able to accomplish many things.

B. Pres. Moya reads the final statement and decision from the faculty. It states: “We completely agree that Whittier students matter, and we, the faculty, staff and administration of the College, are all working extremely hard to help address the realities students are facing in these challenging times.

We understand that concerns about grades would arise at this moment, and we also want to ensure that any grading model used provides maximum options and flexibility for students. To clarify the process, grading policies are determined by the faculty as a body, and they are discussed and treated with great care. The appropriate group for any modifications to grading policies is the Educational Policy Committee (EPC), and it is EPC that devised new, temporary standards to address the hardships students are facing. These new policies were in turn approved by the Faculty Executive Council (FEC) and the faculty as a body.

With this in mind, we write to say that we have read the petition for an A-B scale, and we do hear the concerns being raised, but after much discussion we have determined to keep in place the new policies devised by EPC.

Looking at the evidence, it is clear that while some students feel an A-B system would be more fair, there are many other students who feel that it would in fact be far more inequitable, and this includes a number of students that can be characterized as marginalized. Other schools have also pointed out that colleges that shift entirely to a Credit/No Credit or Pass/ Fail model, may in fact be harming their students in the long run (from problems in transferring credits to issues that affect credentialing and admissions criteria for some graduate programs).

In contrast, the A-D and NC model devised by EPC actually creates more options and greater flexibility for students and allows students to better protect their GPA while also protecting the validity of their transcript when applying to graduate schools. Also, for further flexibility, the Registrar will allow students to change the grade of a course from a letter grade to Credit or No Credit after the final grade has been announced.

We urgently want to reiterate that we, the faculty, are very much aware of and deeply concerned about the difficulties students are facing right now. Faculty are also doing everything they can to be flexible to address this new reality. We especially encourage students who have any questions or issues to consult and work with their professors.

Sincerely,

The members of the Faculty Executive Council”.

1. Piper Lowinger: Just to clarify, in that statement that you read, the governing body has decided that students can change to credit or no credit after their final grade?

Pres. Moya: Yes. Also, I wanted to provide information about an incomplete. An incomplete is when you put your classes on pause and have to go pick up where you left off. This is for students who find themselves in difficult circumstances, so they can pause and pick up where they left off.

Session:

BILL # -

Section I: Preface

WHEREAS, Whittier College has been listed as one of the country’s most environmentally-responsible colleges in the nation by the Princeton Review,

WHEREAS, Whittier College lacks environmental initiatives to uphold the credibility of this claim,

WHEREAS, Global Climate Disruption is one of the most pressing issues of our time,

WHEREAS, Colleges and individuals across the world are implementing sustainable practices into their daily lives,

WHEREAS, Whittier College has the responsibility to implement sustainable practices in order to ensure the preservation of the earth and the well-being of their students,

Section II: The Rock

WHEREAS, the rock is available to be spray painted up to 7 times a week,

WHEREAS, spray paint contains aerosols directly linked to the worsening of the greenhouse effect,

WHEREAS, the World Health Organization states a 20%-40% increase in some types of cancer (in particular lung cancer) for those who come into regular contact with paint while a Danish research center adds possibility of neurological damage

WHEREAS, NASA states, “Aerosols have a profound impact on the climate because, just like greenhouse gases, they are able to change the Earth’s “radiative”, or energy, balance.”

(<https://climate.nasa.gov/news/215/just-5-questions-aerosols/>)

LET IT BE RESOLVED, the use of spray paint on and around the rock is prohibited for Whittier College and its affiliates,

LET IT BE RESOLVED, only liquid paint is to be applied on the rock in good faith,

LET IT BE RESOLVED, environmentally friendly paint is to be applied solely to the rock and not its surrounding area,

LET IT BE FURTHER RESOLVED, that societies and clubs/organizations affiliated with Whittier College are to only paint the rock 5 times each per semester with minimal exceptions that are to be approved by the Environmental Committee Chair

Section III: Incentives

WHEREAS, Whittier College does not provide adequate resources for sustainable living

WHEREAS, sustainable actions of individuals can have a profound positive effect on the environment

Subsection III A: Low Impact Transportation

WHEREAS, approximately 54% of Whittier College students commute to School

WHEREAS, non-motorized transport, public transport, multiple occupant automobile are among the most sustainable methods of commuting

LET IT BE RESOLVED, the ASWC Senate will work with administration to provide the subsequent incentives

LET IT BE RESOLVED, that students using non-motorized transportation, public transport or multiple occupant automobiles to commute to campus can receive a stipend upon the submission of proof to the Environmental Action Chair

LET IT BE FURTHER RESOLVED, that the stipend be equal to $5 per commute while the supply of $500 per semester is available, commute being to and from your destination; Limit one stipend per day

LET IT BE FURTHER RESOLVED, that proof of sustainable commute be considered as the following:

- Time stamped photographs
- GPS tracking apps

LET IT BE FURTHER RESOLVED, the student commuter representative is to be involved in the execution of this initiative

Subsection III B: Sustainable Food Incentives

WHEREAS, the meat industry is a leading contributor to global climate disruption

WHEREAS, there are currently no incentives around sustainable eating habits at Whittier College

WHEREAS, individuals that eat a vegetarian/vegan based diet help to reduce overall greenhouse gas emissions

LET IT BE RESOLVED, vegetarian/vegan food items purchased at the Spot costing $4 or more are eligible to receive a $2 reimbursement from Environmental Committee while supplies last

LET IT FURTHER BE RESOLVED, Environmental Committee will require submission of proof of purchase in the form of a receipt during the Environmental Chairs office hours

LET IT FURTHER BE RESOLVED, submissions will only be accepted during the month of purchase with few exceptions made by the Environmental Chair

LET IT FURTHER BE RESOLVED, the allocated funds for reimbursement will be determined by the Environmental Committee on a monthly basis

Section IV: Event Sustainability

WHEREAS, single-use plastics, styrofoam, and other non-reusable items further contribute to the waste problem impacting our world

WHEREAS, waste ends up throughout our natural environment, never truly breaking down which impacts the health of humans and animals alike

LET IT BE RESOLVED, the ASWC Senate and all student clubs and organizations falling under the umbrella of the ASWC Senate are prohibited from using single-use plastic and styrofoam items when hosting any event

LET IT BE RESOLVED, the current health crisis creates concerns regarding the sanitation of reusables; however, pending national recovery from this epidemic, the Environmental Committee plans to implement the following system

LET IT BE RESOLVED, the Environmental Committee will provide a set number of reusables that can be loaned out to compensate for single-use items when the ASWC Senate deems the aforementioned initiative appropriate; until that time, biodegradable products are to be utilized

LET IT FURTHER BE RESOLVED, that student clubs and organizations are to contact the Environmental Action Advocate via email to rent out the reusables

LET IT FURTHER BE RESOLVED, the Environmental Advocate's email is to be obtained through their office hours or at ASWC Senate meetings

Subsection IV A: Displaced Meals

WHEREAS, Bon Appétit hosts displaced meals using single-use plastic items WHEREAS, single-use items directly contribute to the global waste problem

LET IT BE RESOLVED, Bon Appétit is to use their own reusable dining sets when hosting displaced meals

Section V: Ecosia

WHEREAS, search engines are used in any and all online activity WHEREAS, Google Chrome does not positively contribute to the environment

WHEREAS, Ecosia puts sustainability at the top of its priority list by mitigating emissions through environmental initiatives

LET IT BE RESOLVED, all desktop and laptop computers in the Wardman library are to have their default search engine switched to Ecosia (chrome still available)

THEREFORE, LET IT FINALLY BE RESOLVED, that a copy of this initiative be sent to the following:

Deanna Merino-Contino, Associate Dean for Campus Life

Christine Hernandez, Director for the Office of Student Engagement

Linda Oubré, President of Whittier College

Members of the ASWC”

3. Sen. Casserly-Simmons answered some questions from the Instagram:

The image shows two Instagram question cards. The left card has a question: "Why aren't more impactful actions such as carbon neutral plans being drafted instead of the ones listed?" and an answer: "We would love to do that but the school won't take that action currently. As students we are doing what we can and these are some first steps that we can achieve currently!". The right card has a question: "If I walk every day for 100 days will I get $500 cash" and an answer: "Only if zero other students commuted in a sustainable fashion then yes but students already do commute in sustainable fashions so most likely not".

4. Pres. Moya: I just want to say what a phenomenal job you all did with this bill. Dalton you have gone up and beyond to address every concern and question. I am really proud of what you did.

Sen. Royster: Thank you Dalton for taking every question and concern we have. You took them all and ran with them. You built a bill that speaks for students. You created a bill that makes our campus greener.

Sen. Hidalgo: Why the number 5 for painting the rock?

Sen. Casserly-Simmons: We looked at how often societies paint the rock a semester. It was 14. So we wanted to bring the number. That is also why we put the expectations because there are events where the rock may be painted multiple times.

Sen. Hidalgo: What about paints that aren't releasing nasty stuff in the air? We agree, no arcol.. But do we use paints that are non boc?

Sen. Casserly-Simmons: Non bos is better. The reason we also lowered the number is because of everything it takes for the paint to reach you. We are trying to reduce the supply chain and the chain that comes after like throwing it away.

5. Sen. Royster: I move to vote on passing this bill.

Sen. Hagan-Martin: I second.

For: 14

Against: 2

Abstention: 0

6. This bill does pass.

B. Senator Awards

1. Pres. Moya: Hello everyone, as we end the academic year I wanted to present our ASWC Senate awards. We apologize for the delay in our presentation of our Senators of the Month. We planned on presenting our October and November Senator of the Month awards at our End of the Fall Semester Senate dinner in December but these two senators were unable to attend. And as we all know our Spring semester was quickly brought to a halt. Nonetheless, all of the individuals receiving awards this evening are worthy of this recognition.

Without further or do I would like to start by presenting our October Senator of the year.

From the time this senator began serving on the ASWC Senate table last academic year, they have consistently demonstrated their passion and dedication for advocating for our students, specifically those from marginalized communities. This senator has challenged us all to change the perspective from which we view certain issues, and has brought awareness of different identities and privilege. Issues facing our community and students have been on the forefront of all they have done. Although it was unable to come to fruition, this senator helped plan one of the biggest and most organized Diversity Identities Weeks the college has seen. Their passion for organizing and mobilizing their community extends beyond this College's borders, they have become civically involved in our local community and have encouraged their peers to do the same. From attending Whittier City Council meetings to speaking at Los Angeles Protests and demonstrations urging our political leaders to take action against Climate Change, this senator continues to make their mark on WC and our community. It is an honor to name Senator D Garcia Senator of the month for the month of October.

Next, I would like to present the Senator of the Month award for the month of November. As a new senator on the table, this senator immediately demonstrated her dedication for representing their constituency and advocating for students. They have promoted transparency in areas that have lacked for quite some time and has contributed to the betterment between ASWC Senate and Media Council. I would like to present Representative Kat Garrison with the Senator of the Month award for the month of November.

Now I would like to present the Senator of the Month for the month of February. From the minute this senator began serving on ASWC Senate, they were eager to engage with their constituents and work to enhance the experience of these students. Not only did this senator schedule regular meetings with professional staff to meet the concerns and needs of their constituents, they were diligent in educating the student body at large on the different issues ASWC Senate was dealing with. Most known for their Instagram Story videos, this senator worked to find innovative ways to make information more accessible to our students. They have always asked critical questions and ensured they acted on the best interest of their constituency. It is my privilege to award Senator Lauren Ross with the Senator of the Month award for the month of February.

Next, we have the Senator of the Month award for the month of March. This individual hit the ground running. Within their first few weeks they took charge of one of our committees and prioritized receiving student feedback. They worked to develop an online method to receive student feedback to ensure students had an accessible opportunity to share their concerns and give feedback. This senator was definitely one that could be counted out. They never missed a meeting and were always one of the first to volunteer to represent the Senate at events including but not limited to Orientation, Activities Fair and more. We could always count on this Senator to ask tough questions, regardless if they were unpopular. It was this diligence and dedication that led us to select Senator Arianna Modesti as Senator of the Month for the month of March.

Finally, I would like to present the Senator of the Month award for the month of April. This is another individual that could always be counted on. They diligently attended Senate and committee meetings and were always actively engaged. Not only did they fulfill their responsibilities in the senate in an exemplary fashion, but they brought much needed structure and stability to the governing body they represented. This individual has demonstrated significant growth in their development as a leader and was always one of the first to step in when help and support was needed. They were always eager to collaborate and work with others, and always brought positive energy to the Senate table even during our hardest times. I am very pleased to name Representative Tori Royster as the Senator of the Month for the Month of April.

Last but not least I would like to present the Senator of the Year award. This award is given to a senator who goes above and beyond their expected duties to serve the student body by: promoting collaboration within the Whittier College community, encouraging personal and professional development, and upholding Whittier College's Quaker's values. This senator has done exactly this. This individual truly came into their position ready to work and make great change. From their first senate meeting, this senator strived to educate, empower, and mobilize students. As someone who served on ASWC Senate for the first time, they took on the responsibility of chairing a committee and working with administration without hesitation. This individual is an incredible student leader who maintained a strong and dedicated committee and really went out of their way to connect with students to bring awareness and urgency around a large problem. This senator was famous for their very long constituent reports and for challenging individuals seeking funding to be intentional when thinking about the environmental impacts of their requests. Despite their very hectic schedule, this senator exemplified what it meant to be dedicated to their role, constituents and the Whittier College community at large. This senator acted as a phenomenal role model for students and senators, including myself, and demonstrated what it means to truly be intentional, and practice what you preach. From working with Bon Appetit to develop sustainable business practices, creating awareness around food waste, and now writing a bill that will change the way this College operates forever, it is no doubt this senator has left a great mark on this institution. It is a great privilege to award Senator Dalton Casserly-Simmons with the Senator of the Year award.

2. The awards will be mailed out to you all in a week or two.
