ABSTRACT
Oral History Interview

with

MR. LEIGHTON R. STEWART

July 23, 1972
Victoria, British Columbia

By Evlyn Dorn

For the Richard Nixon Oral History Project

Mr. Stewart was a member of a pioneer family in the Whittier area, who is now living in Victoria, British Columbia. He discusses Whittier in general, including the oil business at nearby Santa Fe Springs, his education in the Whittier schools, including Whittier College, and his career as a teacher and administrator in the school districts of Southern California.

He had no direct contact with the President.
