I think we will sail
from here about next Wednesday. Everything for Alaska is pretty
and we have to leave
our stateroom with
Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson.
which would be quite a trial for people not accustomed to being crowded. I think Fred
will go on this boat -
too and Clara W. Lane himself is on. It is a large safe boat - but has accommodations here

Dear Father and Mother
We arrived here
safely yesterday morning having left St. Fr. last Sunday noon. We are all well but - have been so busy shopping etc.
since we arrived that I did not get time to write your answer.
Mamma was well and
jolly all the trip and is quite unimpaired probably having arrived at desk so much. Edmund and I were both sick as Mama was quite

De Jersey was quite near at the K Brown
and almost everyone
else. The S. Parland
was here when we arrived and said
this one. Mrs. Glover has been in to see us and took the package of Bibles, 50 lbs
S. gave us for him.
He seems happy and
convinced I think.
Edward is trying to look up Ollie Hobson and 10 in. Jackson. This P. Mr.
One neglected to get - D's address. It is wonderful how human in growing and what a difference in ten since

for the first few days
there you are lovely, Mrs. Wright who was not sick and she was very kind in helping with the Bibles and we got along very well.
When we reached there
our pictures had arrived and we sent
you some yesterday.
Hope they will reach
you alright - and remind you to pray for us often if you need to be.
Our kitchen is quite small and human in trying energetically to help me make this
which may account for

we left - S. F. Edward says I got something agree with the - June. She stopped then found night on this.

I will close with moral love will
write again before leaving Seattle.

With kindest regards
to all the friends
your daughter
Anna H. Foster

P.S. Just read your other letter. We did not get your photo - from Mila 10th.
